

2005 Top Awards

Best in Show

Streak of Infidelity
Steel
David Wertz

Tink Ewald Memorial Betty Hancock Bright Award of Distinction

Grand Ole Tree
Acrylic
Kathy Sulzman

*Omaggio a Pietro
Consagra*
Wood
Barbara Norman
Lashley

Nell Williams Memorial

American Soldier
Oil
Helen Hubler

First Place Awards

Oil/Pastel

Practice
Patricia Plancona
Water Media

Photography

Black Spirals
Susan Bidwell
Acrylic

Mixed Media

Spring Fever
A. B. Stringfellow
Other Media

Garden Ladies
Lois Bitner

Chilhowie Cows
Mary Buck Bryant
SOLD

July
Janet Sachs

Click on an image to view an enlargement

20th Annual SHOWCASE of the Arts

This year's Award of Distinction is in honor of Betty Hancock Bright and her invaluable contributions made to The LRA and the Art community. Thank you Betty!

Shelly Koopman graciously accepts the Second Place Award for her work called "Hamptons Sunset".

"Black Spirals" by Susan Bidwell takes home the First Place Award for Photography

Linda Hall enjoying the fruits of her labor with a Merit Award for her piece "Desert Heat".

Douglas Ann Lewis Shaber receiving her Judges Choice Award for "The Laurels".

Frankie Doyle's watercolor receives a Merit Award

Ruth Frederick excited to receive her Judges Choice Award

A crowned jewel in The LRA, Betty Hancock Bright, and her wonderful prince, John.

Lynda Calkins proud of her award for her woodcut print that received a Merit Award in the Other Mediums category.

Thanks to Nancy Steinhorn for her dedication to the Showcase and the League

Betty Hancock-Bright and Ann Stinnett

Carol Fyre and her mother greeting those who attended the noon picnic.

Showcase 2005 Information

Web Site

- October 1 to November 14
- Entry Deadline: September 1, 2005
- Delivery of Works: Thursday September 29, 2005
- Awards Reception Sunday October 9, 2 to 5 PM in the Atrium
- Pick up: November 14th 2005
- William G. White Juror

The Annual Showcase is wonderful. Each year I think the artwork in the show is the best ever, then a new show starts and the artwork is always outstanding.

Nancy Stellhorn